

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their plans to air "Stolen Honor" just days before the general election would be direct electioneering by a corporate media giant, and is clearly a violation of federal election law. Thank you.